An inspiring celebrity from Slovakia: Dominika Cibulková
By: Ingrid Huranová

My inspiring celebrity is Dominika Cibulková. She is a professional tennis player from Slovakia. She is known for her fast and aggressive style of play. To my mind, she is an amazing player that is proved by her wins.

Dominika Cibulková is an inspirational celebrity because of her single-mindedness and determination. Her father was a professional water skier as a result Dominika is a professional sportswoman, too. She has started playing tennis at the age of seven. Since then she has won many awards like Tennist of the year, 5th place on Australian open, eight times 1st place in tournaments WTA and others. 5th place in a tournament Australian open is her the biggest success up to now.

She is not only a brilliant tennis player, but she supports charities in order to help other people and she takes a part in advertising. Dominika and a basketball player Bronislava Borovičková established a civic Association "Aby hviezdy nehasli". The aim of this organization is help to sportsmen without financial resources.

To sum up, Dominika is an amazing sportswoman with a big heart. As a consequence she has inspired many younger tennis players and members of other sports, too. She is very optimistic and absolutely unbreakable during her matches.

An inspiring celebrity from my country
Marian Hossa By Tomáš Hudák

There are so many people that represent our country in the world every day. It is unbelievable in order to fact that we are so small country. I think celebrities should be good influencers for younger people as well, because they are constantly being watched.
I am not really a hockey fan, but Marian Hossa is one of the few people in Slovakia, that have influenced all nation with not just being a good sportsman, but being a role model and inspiring young people to chase their dreams.
